

<http://elf.georgetown.edu>
<http://exchanges.state.gov/english/teaching>

English Language Fellow Program
Center for Intercultural Education and Development
Georgetown University
Box 579400
Washington, DC 20057-9400

English Language Fellow Program

The Number One Fellowship for
TESOL Professionals

Enhance your TESOL career—
Become an English Language Fellow!

- ★ Exciting variety of responsibilities in addition to teaching EFL, including ESP, teacher training and materials design.
- ★ Prestigious placements including universities, binational centers, and NGOs.
- ★ Ten-month fellowships funded by the U.S. Department of State, Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs.
- ★ Fellowships available worldwide.

Now accepting applications!

Enhance your TESOL career – Become an English Language Fellow!

The English Language Fellow Program fosters mutual understanding between the people of the United States and those of other countries by sending talented, highly qualified U.S. educators in the field of Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) on ten-month fellowships to overseas academic institutions in all regions of the world.

English Language Fellow Program

Make a Mark — Teach English

The Number One Fellowship for TESOL Professionals

Funded by the
U.S. Department of State
Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs
Office of English Language Programs

Administered by
Georgetown University
Center for Intercultural
Education and Development

Quick facts about the program

- ★ Each year approximately 120 Fellows participate in projects abroad.
- ★ Fellows cultivate international experience teaching English in all regions of the world.
- ★ Assignments are for a ten-month period, typically from September through June.
- ★ Projects are carried out with host-country universities, ministries of education, teacher training institutions, NGOs, binational centers, and other language teaching institutions.
- ★ Fellows serve as full-time ESL/EFL instructors and may be engaged in some teacher training, ESP instruction, curriculum/materials development, test design, assessment, evaluation, programming, summer camps, and outreach projects.
- ★ Fellows may provide English for Special Purposes (ESP) instruction in the fields of civics, diplomacy, economics, journalism, law, management, and tourism.

Fellow benefits

- ★ Stipend
- ★ Living allowance
- ★ International roundtrip transportation
- ★ Basic supplemental health benefit plan
- ★ Miscellaneous allowances

Eligibility requirements

- ★ U.S. Citizenship
- ★ Master's with a focus in TESOL
- ★ Minimum two years professional TESOL experience
- ★ Teacher training and curriculum/material development experience helpful

For more information, please contact:

English Language Fellow Program
Georgetown University
Center for Intercultural Education and Development
Box 579400
Washington, DC 20057-9400

Tel: (202) 687-2068
Fax: (202) 687-2555
E-mail: elf@georgetown.edu

Apply online:

<http://elf.georgetown.edu>

Fellowships available worldwide